

Madison trained at Hartley School Of Performing Arts from early primary.

In her time here she has taken classes in Drama, Dance and Singing. Since 2015 Madison has completed many drama Trinity college exams, then switching to completing her Musical Theatre Trinity college exams in 2019. 2023 saw her pass her ATCL Trinity College Musical Theatre Exam.

Madison has also completed many Dance exams, including jazz and contemporary Dance NZmade from grade 5-10 with high marks, as well as top of class. She has completed her grade 5 NZAMD tap exam with honours. She has also studied Ballet at Jenna McKenzie School Of Dance to further progress her technique.

Madison has been in many shows from 2012 -2022 as a specialty dancer and many lead roles including, The Cheshire Cat in Alice in wonderland (2022) In 2021 she performed in Joseph and the Amazing Technicolour Deamcoat, with the North Canterbury Musicals. For the last three years she performed in Visionary dance schools' yearly showcase. This included Jazz, commercial, contemporary, Lyrical, Tap, Heels, Chorus Heels, and Hip Hop.

Madison has been teaching Hip Hop, Contemporary and jazz in all age levels from 2022-2024. Through 2023-2024 Madison was a choreographer in many creative teams, for junior shows, and recently a senior show, Wizard of OZ. She will continue to choreograph in 2025. Madison also pursued her other goal, of working with people with disabilities in 2023. She created a dance class for those with disabilities, 'Dance for the Differently-Abled'. She is thrilled to be joining the Dance Central whānau.