

Sharon graduated from the National Ballet School under the guidance of Ann Judson. She went on to enjoy a diverse career with International ballet companies in China and America.

Sharon taught many ballet students at Southern Ballet before establishing Dance Central Studios. Today she continues to lead the advancement of classical ballet as a guest tutor Convergence Dance School, Theatre Dance Academy at St Margaret's College and recently accepted a position to tutor at St. Andrews Ballet Academy